KARNATAKA HOME GUARDS (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1977

Motion to consider.

SRI D. DEVARAJ URS (Chief Minister).—I move.

"That the Karnataka Home Guards (Amendment) Bill,1977 be taken into consideration."

MADAM SPEAKER.—Motion moved.

"That the Karnataka Home Guards (Amendment) Bill, 1977 be taken into consideration."

† SRI D DEVARAJURS.—Madam Speaker, this amendment is merely to enable the Home Guards who are on duty to draw their salary on those days when they have necessarily to be on duty and they cannot be attending to their work wherever they are employed. Most of the Home Guards are either employees of Public Undertakings or private industries as also Government servants including the Central Government. There are here and there people who come from different professions like the Lawyers, Doctors and businessmen too ; but their number is small. Never the less most of the members in the Home Guards who are employed in the establishment which I mentioned that many a time the employers do not give them leave nor do they give them the pay. Every time they attend home guard duty they
